to tackle the problem in a holistic manner, sharing of intelligence inputs on constant basis etc. have also been taken and effectively followed-up.

(e) and (f) Yes, Sir. It was decided that while the Centre would continue to extend all possible assistance to the States in intelligence sharing, Security Related Expenditure, training needs of police personnel etc. the States concerned must continue with their efforts towards focussed inter-State co-ordination, ground level intelligence gathering in depth analysis of problem areas and anticipation of events, considerable thrust on all areas of responsive administration including placement of very dedicated and sincere administrative hands in trouble prone ares, socio-economic measures to cater to the needs of the poor segments, acceleration of land reforms initiatives, redressal of people's grievances including expeditious disposal of cases in courts of law etc.

Complaints against Officers of Administrative Division

3428. MISS FRIDA TOPNO: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of complaints against officers working in the administration division of Ministry during the last three years;

(b) the details of such officers including their names/designation; and

(c) the action taken by the Ministry in those cases?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D.SWAMI): (a) to (c) According to available information, besides some anonymous/pseudonymous complaints, five complaints from identifiable persons/sources containing specific allegations against officers working in the Administration Division have been received since April, 1997. In accordance with the instructions of the Central Vigilance Commission, no action is required to be taken on anonymous/pseudonymous complaints. Three complaints were examined at length and were found to be without any substance. The remaining two complaints are being looked into.

Recruitment of surrendered militants in Paramilitary Forces in J&K

3430. SHRI R.S. GAVAI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether for rehabilitating surrendered militants they are being recruited in various paramilitary forces in Jammu & Kashmir;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether security experts are against Government's policy; and

(d) if so, the reaction of Government thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO): (a) to (d) The Government of Jammu and Kashmir announced a Surrender Policy for the militants which was revised in June, 1997. As per the provisions of the Policy, the militants who surrender are to be first kept in a transit camp and then transferred to the Rehabilitation Centre. The beneficiaries will be covered under PMRY or State Self-Employment Scheme for establishing permanent source of livelihood. Eligible persons will also be considered for recruitment in Defence Forces, Central Para Military Forces, JAKLI, etc. and recruiting teams will visit the Rehabilitation Centres for special recruitment. As per information made available by the State Government, 812 surrenderees have so far been recruited in CPMF's. As stated by the State Government, there are very few surrendered militants eligible and willing for recruitment in CPMFs. There are no reports received against the recruitment of surrendered militants in CPMFs.
